

The government on Wednesday released the new "Draft National Electricity Policy (NEP) 2026" for public consultation with stakeholders, marking a significant step towards transforming India's...

Weeks after the government enacted the SHANTI Act to open India's nuclear sector to private players, a new draft National Electricity Policy (NEP) signals a clear policy shift -- a strong ...

Overview Electricity as a substitute for imported LPG and PNG Fossil fuels Renewable energy Others Energy trading with neighboring countries Policy framework Energy conservation and carbon trading India's net import of liquefied petroleum gas (LPG) is 16.607 million tons and the domestic consumption is 25.502 million tons which is 90% of total consumption in 2021-22. The LPG import content is nearly 57% of total consumption in 2021-22. The affordable electricity retail tariff (860 Kcal/kWh at 74% heating efficiency) to replace LPG (net calorific value 11,000 Kcal/Kg at 40% heating efficiency) in domestic cooking is up to 10.2 INR/kWh when the retail price of LPG cylinder...

Aligned with India's COP26 commitments, the policy mandates a 45% reduction in emissions intensity by 2030 (vs 2005) and aims for net-zero emissions by 2070. It promotes low ...

The Electricity (Amendment) Bill, 2025, introduces key reforms to modernise India's power sector. It promotes competition in distribution, strengthens regulatory oversight, and supports fair pricing ...

On 1 February, India's finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman unveiled the government's budget for 2026, which included a new $2.2bn funding push for carbon capture technologies. In the ...

Some areas of focus include: attracting capital to finance a just energy transition, increasing the share of non-fossil electricity, and deploying new clean technologies. Financing the ...

A report by The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI) outlines a roadmap for India's energy transition in the transport sector, emphasizing electric mobility, alternative fuels, and policy-driven ...

India's Ministry of Power has initiated a public consultation on a new Draft National Electricity Policy (NEP) 2026, which aims to meet the goals of the Viksit Bharat development ...

India's energy policy is undergoing important shifts. Driven by the triple imperatives of energy security, affordability, and sustainability, the Government of India is gradually using structural policy reforms to ...

The government on Wednesday released a new "Draft National Electricity Policy (NEP) 2026" which aims to transform the power sector to meet the vision of Viksit Bharat @2047. The ...

Web: <https://www.rrrprojects.co.za>